

Dr. Darilyn Falck

Darilyn Falck, MD FACEP is a graduate of Eastern Virginia Medical School in Norfolk, Virginia (1995). She completed residency in Emergency Medicine at Loma Linda University Medical Center (1998) and served as Chief Resident during her third year. She is board certified in Emergency Medicine and has practiced EM for the past eleven years.

Dr. Falck has been a member of Christian Medical Association since 1991, and has served as a campus student leader, Student Delegate, Student Trustee, and Chair of the Women in Medicine & Dentistry (WIMD) Commission. She currently practices Emergency Medicine at Sutter Roseville Medical Center where she serves as the Assistant Medical Director of the Emergency Department and is a member of the hospital Bioethics Committee.

She is married to Troy, who also works as an Emergency Medicine physician. She is committed to short-term medical mission work and has served on teams to Fiji, Guatemala, Honduras, Jamaica, Mexico, Papua New Guinea, and the Solomon Islands. She has a Volunteer Clinical Faculty appointment at University of California, Davis School of Medicine and serves as a Community Advisor and also as a preceptor for the Bayanihan Clinic. She remains passionate about mentoring and ministry to women and students.